REPARATIONS SETTLEMENT IN SIGHT.

German Industrial Magnates' Offer.

ALLIES NEARING ACCORD.

(Reuter's "Service.")

There is keen expectation of Germany's new reparations offer being delivered this week. The industrial magnates have formally offered the German Government a proportion of their assets as a guarantee for the payment to the Allies. The offer is accompanied by conditions, including private management of the railways and other State services, the abolition of foreign trade control, and an eight-hour day, which has evoked strong opposition from the Socialists, who demand that the guarantee take the form of more adequate taxation of the rich. The Socialists have warned the Cabinet of the danger of offering too little, and the necessity for making a more serious effort to come to terms.

Meanwhile there are indications of a change of atmosphere in France and Belgium. The latter now favours a joint Belgo-French and Anglo-Italian answer to the next German offer. If France agrees to this proposal at the forthcoming conference of the French and Belgian Premiers, it is the British Government's opportunity to intervene more effectively with a view to a general Allied and German agreement. Mr. Baldwin, as his speech accepting the Conservative leadership indicated, has put a European settlement in the very forefront of his policy, and according to the Observer's diplomatic correspondent he has been taking a determined line recently in the direction of persuading the French to take a more reasonable view of Germany's capacity to pay.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

EARTHQUAKE IN PERSIA.

An earthquake lasting all day long occurred on 26th May at Turbat and surrounding districts over a radius of four miles. Thirty villages and hamlets were destroyed. Forty corpses were recovered at Turbat and 2,200 from the districts affected. The authorities have instituted relief measures.

BRITISH IMMIGRANTS TO AMERICA DETAINED.

The latest sequel to the exhaustion of the British quota of immigrants to the United States is that a number of passengers aboard the train bound for Buffalo from Canada were detained on the border.

AMERICAN FLEET TO VISIT THE CLYDE.

It is officially intimated that a large American fleet with seven hundred midshipmen from Annapolis Academy will visit the Clyde in July.

BRITAIN AND RUSSIA.

The Bolshevik press is hostile to Lord Curzon's reply, the latest Soviet note declaring that Britain is bent on rupture and the Soviet Government should take up the challenge.

STANTON'S SHOW.

A Big Kowloon Attraction.

Stanton's Midway show, an amusement enterprise new to the Colony, is to open on Thursday at Kowloon on the vacant piece of ground at the corner of Nathan and Salisbury Roads. The combination arrived this morning from Singapore and India, where according to reports it has been breaking records in this particular line of business. Stanton's had the contract for the Far East Cross Fete at Bombay and the All India Exhibition at Calcutta.

The show takes its name "Midway" from the fact that there is a little of everything on its programmes—merry-go-rounds, Eli Ferris wheel, giant wheel, swing-boats, circus, hippodrome, illusions, carnival attractions, etc. Further particulars will be found in the advertisement elsewhere.

INTERPORT RIFLE SHOOTING.

Hongkong Well Ahead of Shanghai.

The Shanghai team competing in the Far East Interport rifle match fired off on May 26th, and obtained a total of 929 points. Hongkong's score of 956 is well ahead of this, and there is every prospect of the Colony winning the contest. Singapore, with what is described as a scratch team, has probably qualified for bottom place with a total of only 783 scored on May 27th. The full returns are not yet to hand. We understand that Pe ang, which was expected to compete, has quite a good selection of marksmen. Hongkong's average of 95.6 per man, will, however be very hard to beat.

HOUSING PROBLEM.

Fair Rents Board Wanted.

We have received the following letter for publication:—

Sir,—Why does the Government not make an amendment in the Rents Ordinance to prevent the demolition of occupied houses whilst present conditions last, and also until such time as tenants are able to find accommodation?

Why does the Government not make a further amendment that all houses be classified, with fair rents fixed, this to apply to both new and old houses?

The need for a Fair Rents Board is shown in the fact that some tenants have been paying $40 or $50 a month for a four-roomed house, whereas a new tenant of the same house has to pay $180. This applies to a house in Wong Nei Chung Road.

Something should be done very soon regarding this housing problem, which is beginning to look very serious indeed. Early action should be taken. All tenants appreciate the stand the Telegraph has taken on this question.

Yours etc.

REISS BROS' FAILURE.

A Manchester Comment.

The Manchester Guardian of April 27, has the following:—

It has been rumoured for some time that Reiss Brothers, Limited, of Manchester, might have difficulty in overcoming the misfortune that befell them when the postwar boom collapsed and cotton goods fell heavily in value. They have since made a gallant effort to retrieve their position, but circumstances have been against them, and the Manchester Official Receiver has been appointed provisional liquidator, pending the hearing of a petition for the compulsory winding-up of the Company. They can be assured, that they have the sympathy of the whole business community. It is understood that they traded prudently whilst the postwar boom was on, and would probably have survived the slump which followed if they had not been the victims of contract repudiations. There was a great deal of this reprehensible practice at that time, not only in China but in India and other countries, including America and our own. The American trade leaders said that in the cases of their countrymen, much of it was due to shippers' firms, who had no resources to meet possible losses, and it is certain that that happened on rather a large scale in Shanghai. We do not suppose that Reiss Brothers were careless in that respect, but it is likely that they suffered from the general dislocation of business which occurred when so many of the new Chinese traders defaulted. The subsequent rise in cotton to an extraordinarily high level has made it impossible for the poorer Chinese to buy Lancashire cotton goods on the pre-war scale, and the prolonged civil war has prevented many who wanted to buy them from doing so. Perhaps too, Reiss Brothers have suffered from the excess profits duty regulations. Many Manchester firms which would have saved by being able to recover large sums previously paid in excess profits duty. Those which changed hands, however, have had no claim upon the payments of their predecessors, and it may be that Reiss Brothers are in that position, as the present private limited company which bears the name was only formed in 1920. The rule bears hardly upon some firms which have undergone no real change but the authorities apparently consider they are bound to enforce it rigidly.

KWANGTUNG FIGHTING.

Has Waichow Fallen?

There appears to be some doubt as to whether Dr. Sun's forces have captured Waichow, after all. The pro-Sun organ, the Canton Daily News, of Thursday stated that "the capture of Waichow was officially announced last evening," but the same paper, in its issue of Saturday, says:—"Although information received from private sources indicated that Waichow was captured by the Constitutional Forces, no official confirmation of the report has been received so far. However, the Headquarters received an official report from the front stating that all the high points of vantage immediately outside of the city walls of Waichow have all been occupied by the Constitutional Forces and that the fall of the city proper is imminent."

The same journal states:—"Dr. Sun Yat-sen who is now in Sheklung directing the East River campaign reports in a telegram to Headquarters as follows:—"General advance from here to-day. Prospect splendid." This telegram was sent yesterday. This indicates that the order for general attack on all the fronts has been given and it will not be surprising that the enemy who is now being harried in by the allied Constitutional Forces, will be totally routed before another day is passed."

Other News.

Concerning the reported capture of Waichow, a Canton correspondent says that although statements from the vernacular press, published by official authority, state that the city fell on the 30th, May, news from Swatow, which has not been censored, says that communication between that place and Waichow were still uninterrupted on the 31st, thus indicating that the city was still in the hands of Chan's troops. Dr. Sun, who is now at Sheklung, has recently called upon the troops to attack Pok Lo and has offered a big reward for the capture of that city.

An order has been issued by Dr. Sun cashiering Admiral Wan Shu-tak for refusing to obey orders, and declaring that henceforth all the ships of the Navy will be under his (Dr. Sun's) control. It is reported that Admiral Wan has left for Swatow, to join the naval force there.

The Nine Benevolent Societies and a number of commercial guilds have not yet complied with the demand that they advance a million dollars for military expenses. The financial authorities have therefore instructed the militarists to demand payment direct, and to take any means to secure the funds. As a result, many of the officials of these bodies have fled from Canton. However, the authorities have now ordered the making of investigations regarding the properties of the societies with a view to having them disposed of in the market.

CONSOLIDATED LOAN SERVICE.

Sir F. A. Aglen's Attitude.

Peking, June 3. The Chinese Bankers' Association have received through the Director of Customs a copy of a telegram from Sir F. A. Aglen, Inspector-General of Customs, in which the latter declares that he will not consent to any scheme invalidating the priority of the Consolidated Loan Service so long as the Loan Service remains in his hands. If the Government decides on the scheme proposed, it must first formally and publicly relieve him of his trust.

The same Association telegraphed to the Provinces denouncing the security proposed for the Twelfth Year Loan, pointing out that the Customs surplus is earmarked for the Consolidated Loan Service.—Courtesy: Daily Bulletin.

EXTORTING BRIBES.

Indian Constable Sent to Gaol.

Interesting revelations into the methods employed by some Sikh policemen were supplied in a case which came before Mr. R. E. Lindell at the Police Court this morning, in which Mr. Burlington A.S.P., appeared to charge P. C. Katar Singh with extorting bribes from a hawker. From the evidence the fact was disclosed that the hawker had his stall in Rumsey Street. The other night it was on the verge of being dismantled by a kick which Katar Singh aimed at it, when the constable uttered the significant word "cumshaw." Either the hawker did not or feigned not to understand the hint, for the constable was obliged to come back with a friend, another Indian policeman, who interpreted the wish of Katar Singh as follows:—"You have to give me a cumshaw of twenty cents every night, or your stall will be kicked as it has been this night."

The hawker had to satisfy these rapacious policemen somehow, so he made a promise that the cumshaw would start the next night. They were satisfied and went away. Promptly at the appointed hour the following night, Katar Singh again loomed on the scene. He gave a significant nod and beckoned to the hawker. The hawker came, and again heard the word "Cumshaw." The money then changed hands.

The third night, Katar Singh called for the second instalment of his new source of income. Had he but known what was going to happen, he would not have come. Many things had happened between the second and the third visit. Firstly, the hawker had reported the extortion to the officers at Police Headquarters. Secondly, Sergeant Elston had gone down to Rumsey Street and so stationed himself that whilst he was able to obtain a full view of the proceedings, he remained unobserved. When Katar Singh arrived, two ten-cent pieces, which he did not know were specially marked for subsequent identification, were handed to him. When Sergeant Elston made an appearance on the scene, the Sikh was caught with the money on him.

Sentence of six weeks' hard labour was inflicted by Mr. Lindell at the close of the case. His Worship pointed out to the Sikh the foolishness of risking his career for the sake of a few ten cents.

OBITUARY.

Mr B. Lloyd of the Naval Yard.

The many friends of Mr. B. Lloyd, late of H. M. Naval Yard, will regret to hear of his sudden death, which took place at the R. N. Hospital at 3.55 a.m. on the 31st. May. He resided in the Colony for just over two years, during the whole of which time he was continually at duty, and the fact that he was at his post until the day prior to his demise testifies to his zeal and makes his loss the more regrettable. The funeral took place at Happy Valley at 4.30 p.m. on the 31st ultimo, and was attended by practically the whole of the European staffs of H. M. Naval Establishments; also by many other friends he had made in the Colony.

MOTOR CONTESTS.

Local Association to Discuss Project.

It will be remembered that we referred a few weeks ago to the idea of local reliability trials for motor-cars and motor-cycles, and suggested that the Hongkong Automobile Association might foster interest in the project among its members. Subsequently, in an interview with the hon. secretary of the Association, Mr. P. H. Hodgson, a representative of the Telegraph learned that the matter was one which the committee had in mind, and that it would be discussed by them at an early meeting.

We learn that there was a committee meeting of the Automobile Association last week, but no decision was come to on the question of reliability trials, the matter being left over for consideration at the forthcoming annual general meeting.

KING'S BIRTHDAY.

Reception and Ball at Government House.

The reception and ball given at Government House by H. E. the Governor and Lady Stubbs on Saturday night, in celebration of H. M. the King's birthday, proved a brilliant social success. In all, 800 guests were present, and the gathering was in every sense a representative one. The guests were received in the ballroom by His Excellency and Lady Stubbs, the former being in full uniform and her ladyship being attired in a beautiful gown of Wedgwood shade. Mr. A. Dyer Ball was A.D.C. in waiting for the purpose of introducing the guests, whilst Capt. Neville was in personal attendance on the Governor. A striking feature of the function was the artistic manner in which the decorations and illuminations were carried out. The ballroom was particularly effective, the soft pink overhead lights blending admirably with the suspended baskets of pink and white lotus blooms. A similar scheme was carried out in the supper rooms. The exterior of the building was very charmingly lit up with crimson lanterns, this throwing into prominence the big illuminated royal crown over the northern entrance. In the grounds, there was a profusion of red electric bulbs hidden in the trees and greenery, whilst many of the paths were covered in to provide against the contingency of rain, which, however, did not fall till shortly before midnight. Everything was splendidly arranged for the comfort and convenience of the guests. An excellent dance programme was provided, comprising ten numbers besides the four supper dances and extras. Music was supplied by the band of the 2nd Battalion King's Regiment, who deserve a tribute for the excellence of their work. The guests invited were:—

THE OPIUM COMMISSION.

London, June 2.

Speaking at the Opium Committee of the League of Nations at Geneva on May 23, Mr. Chao Hsin-chu said there was no reason why the Governments of Far Eastern colonies should not effectively and gradually suppress the consumption of opium which had increased during the last decade and since the signing of the Convention in Far Eastern possessions of the European Powers. Apparently 48 per cent. of the total revenue of Singapore was derived from the monopoly on opium consumed by the Chinese settlers. The Chinese Government would never protest against any action by the Government of a Far Eastern Colony with a view to the suppression of the consumption of opium. If the Singapore Government suppressed the consumption of opium thousands of coolies would be saved, and there would be no loss of revenue because the money at present spent on opium would be used to purchase food, clothing and other necessities. Therefore, he hoped the Committee would urge the European Powers with possessions in the Far East to take a far-sighted view in regard to the situation in the government of their colonies.

Geneva, June 2.

League of Nations Opium Commission adopted a resolution by seven to one votes—Holland being a dissentient, while India abstained—by which they accepted the United States proposals in the belief that they embody general principles which the Governments should follow, and in view of the fact that they form the basis of the International Convention on Opium signed in 1912 they further unanimously welcome United States collaboration. The proposal that Governments should decide what can be regarded as medical and other employment of drugs within their borders was rejected by four to three. In the majority were Germany, China, France and Holland, in the minority Britain, India and Japan. Sir Malcolm Delevingne, representing Britain, thereupon sought adjournment to reconsider the position created.

Geneva, June 3.

At the sitting of the League of Nations Opium Commission, Sir Malcolm Delevingne submitted the following new text to replace the rejected Article 3: "The Commission understands that the United States' proposals are not destined to suppress the medical use of opium in small quantities according to local custom in certain countries in the East where the medical services are not at the disposal of the mass of the population." This was rejected by four votes to three, and there were two abstentions. In the majority were China, France, Holland and Portugal; in the minority Britain, India and Germany. The representatives of India and Germany accepted Sir Malcolm Delevingne's proposal with certain reservations.

The League of Nations Opium Commission unanimously adopted an amended motion by Mr. Delevingne on the subject of the United States proposals which provides that the employment of opium in accordance with usage in India be declared legitimate under the terms of the convention, and the employment of prepared opium is held legitimate as far as its use accords with Section 2 of the Opium Convention. The Commission proposes that the Council should endeavour to secure agreements of precise limitation of the production of manufactured drugs and the reduction of quantities of raw opium imported into possessions where its usage continues to be recognised.

AMERICAN PROHIBITION.

Washington, June 2.

A strict application of the Supreme Court's liquor decision has practically been decided upon by the Treasury officials who hold out no hope of meeting the view of foreign Powers through regulatory provisions. The officials state that nothing short of legislation will ameliorate the difficulty in which the Government finds itself as regards foreign vessels.

The Hague, June 3.

The Dutch Minister at Washington has been instructed to make further protest on the subject of the inconvenience caused to Dutch shipping by the decision of the United States Supreme Court applying prohibition to foreign vessels entering American territorial waters.

Albany, June 2.

The Governor of New York has signed the Prohibition Repeal Act. [The object of this Act is to divest the State and throw the task of keeping the State dry on the authorities.]

FALL IN THE PRICE OF SILVER.

London, June 2.

The Financial thinks that the silver situation is likely soon to undergo an important modification with the cessation of purchases under the Pittman Act. As regards the fall in the price that is more or less inevitable as the result of increased available supplies for ordinary consumers. The extent of the fall will depend on the extent of the revival of trade in the Far East; but if the commercial depression rules the price will possibly fall, making production unprofitable by low grade mines in countries other than America where it is mined largely in association with copper.

HIGH SUGAR PRICES IN AMERICA.

Washington, June 3.

President Harding has discussed the tariff situation with Mr. Marvin, Chairman of the Tariff Commission. It was afterwards announced at the White House that President Harding would not consider any modification of the sugar tariff with a view to reducing sugar prices because this would discourage the development of the domestic sugar industry.

SOVIET FOREIGN TRADE.

Reval, June 3.

A message from Moscow states that the Italian Government have recalled their trade representative. The French trade delegation has arrived.

THE SAAR DECREE.

Paris, June 3.

M. Poincare has addressed a note to London as regards the British suggestion to establish a League of Nations Commission to enquire into the Saar decree mentioned on 11th May. It is reliably stated that the Note defends the legality of the decree and contends that the Saar Commission cannot be placed under League control; nevertheless it states that the exceptional measures taken for the preservation of order are being suspended as no longer necessary.

A BOLSHEVIST EMISSARY.

London, June 3.

A Russian physician, Dr. Morris Gatzva, has been arrested in London while travelling from New York to Hamburg, sentenced at Bow Street to a fortnight's imprisonment and fined £100 for possession of a false passport. The police said Gatzva was known as a representative of the Soviet Government using a false passport to enable him to travel between America and Europe as an American.

THE RECORD OF QUALITY.

The "OKEH" has come to stay. That's a fact. Get acquainted with it to the strains of the latest musical masterpieces as rendered by the world's greatest artists or to the strains of the latest Fox Tots and Waltzes as played by America's leading orchestras and bands. Do not forget that the "OKEH" is original and refined and that it pleases and satisfies. So says everybody who has heard it and there can be no better recommendation than this.

Haven't you got a Talking Machine? Then let us name for you your own requirements in selecting a Phonograph. It must be a musical instrument first and it must have faultless tone—clear, round, true. It must be not only pleasing in design but correct. Its proportions must be exact, its wood and metal perfect, its workmanship beyond criticism; and, more than ever before, its price must be reasonable. We have such an instrument in the "STRAND" CONSOLE—worthy of the place of honour in any room of any home. Let us demonstrate it to you. You must see the "STRAND" and hear it to appreciate what has become possible in 1923.

WILL OF COMTESSE DE PARIS.

Her Hope for France's Future.

"I trust that a time will return in France as glorious as the time that has passed away." This is a passage from the will, which has been filed in London, of Marie Isabelle Francaise d'Orleans Comtesse de Paris, of 59, Rue Varenne, Paris, of Chateau d'Eu, of Chateau de Randan, all in France, and of Villamantique, Spain, who died on April 23, 1919, at Villamantique, widow of Monseigneur Louis Philippe Albert d'Orleans Comte de Paris, mother of Queen Amelia of Portugal and of the Infanta Louise. The executor is her nephew, Jean d'Orleans Duc de Guise, of Chateau de Neuville-Aisne, France. The will breathes throughout pride in the glory of France and pain for its sorrow. It was made on July 6, 1911, prior to the war, with a codicil (the third) dated during the war, September 29, 1917. The will opens:

"After the sad events and the sorrow which have so cruelly afflicted my family for some years past, I have had to notify my last dispositions." She begged her children—whatever might be the time or place of her death—to bury her by the side of her husband, "for having been united with him during my life I also wish to be so after my death, and ever to rest at his side. I do not desire any flowers to be placed around me, but the Flag of Victory shall be placed on my coffin," after which this flag shall be sent to the Duc d'Orleans, and failing him to the Duc de Montpensier.

PAPERS OF THE COMTE.

She directed that all papers or letters in the handwriting of the Comte de Paris should be burnt by her testamentary executors, as the papers and letters contain only entirely personal and intimate souvenirs which she desired to pass with her. She left all the family papers to the Duc d'Orleans, together with the picture of the wounded of the Battle of Dreux, now or lately in the Chateau d'Eu, and the supplies to complete the set of those left to him by the Comte de Paris.

She left to her son Ferdinand Duc de Montpensier, certain jewellery and lace, to be retained as heir looms, and her effects at Randan. She left 50,000 francs upon trust for investment and to apply the income towards the salary of the Duc or in Charge of Asile, San Felipe, Villamantique, founded in memory of the Comte de Paris; a sum to be determined by the Duc d'Orleans in agreement with her executor to be distributed amongst the poor of the districts in which she had residences.

She directed her executors to withdraw from Messrs. Courts and Co., London, the sums to the credit of the Fond Ysabel Account, to be used by them in good works approved as nearly as possible to the objects for which the fund was founded. She bequeathed a life annuity of 12,000 francs to M. Camille Dupuy, "the devoted and faithful in exile."

PEERESS AND ARTIST HUSBAND.

Descendants of Byron and Bulwer-Lytton.

A romance of the peerage and literature is recalled by a suit brought by Baroness Wentworth, who in the Divorce Court has been granted a decree nisi.

Lady Wentworth, herself an authoress is the daughter of the late Sir Wilfrid Lawson Blunt, the poet, and great granddaughter of another poet, Lord Byron.

Her husband, the Hon. Neville Stephen Bulwer-Lytton, an accomplished painter, is grandson of the

TOO MUCH SILVER MONEY.

The Banks in London are complaining that they have far too much silver money, and are asking the Mint to help them to reduce the quantity. It is estimated that the excess of silver coinage over the requirements of the country is from £15,000,000 to £20,000,000—enough to pave

LINCHENG OUTRAGE.

Foreign Military Mission
Departs.Peking, June 1.—A large aeroplane left Peking yesterday for Taochuan. The Military Mission left for Lincheng this afternoon.—
Daily Bulletin.Shanghai, June 1.—At a mass meeting held at Shanghai, Sir Skinner Turner presiding, the following resolution was passed:—
"That this meeting, representative of the whole foreign community of Shanghai, desires to place on record its profound horror at the outrage recently committed at Lincheng and at the increasing lawlessness and misrule of which Lincheng was the culmination; and this meeting respectfully draws the attention of the Diplomatic Body at Peking to this public and united expression of feeling in the hope and with the intention that it may strengthen their Excellencies' hands in making such representations to their respective Governments as they may deem necessary to secure the release of the captive who are now in bandit hands, and bring the Central and Provincial Authorities to a lasting sense of their responsibility for the restoration of order, and observance of treaty rights and the welfare of the great and friendly Chinese people."The resolution was proposed by Sir Edward Pearce, and seconded by Mr. Harold J. Dollar.At the close of the meeting the Chairman read a letter on behalf of the Chinese community of Shanghai endorsing the resolution.—

A Hopeful Outlook.

Peking, June 2nd.—It is reported from Taochuan that the enlistment of bandits in the army has begun and will probably take a week after which all the captives will be released.—Reuter.Taochuan, June 2nd.—Messrs.
Menley, Eddie Elias and Saphiere Veres arrived at noon unconditionally released. The prospects of the others are good. The Military Commission arrived this morning by aeroplane and reconnected.
—Reuter.Taochuan, June 3rd.—The bandits have released eight more captives.—Reuter.Peking, June 3.—It is stated that four Chinese captives also were released yesterday. It is semi-officially said that Mr. Alfred Sze has wired to the Government stating that the Powers have decided to postpone the judicial conference on extra-territoriality indefinitely.
—Reuter.Shanghai, June 2.—A report issued from Taochuan last night stating that eight captives will be released today proves premature.
Negotiations are continuing. The arrival of the International Military Commission is awaited and the outlook is hopeful.—Reuter.SELF STYLED PROPHET KILLED.

Result of Religious Riots.

Manila, June 2.—Fifty-three Moro religious fanatics, including Akbara, a self-styled prophet, were killed in a fight with the constabulary on the island of Patu near Jolo. Akbara was erroneously reported killed in the last fight of which there are no details.Eight hundred and six Moro fanatics surrendered following the battle. It is estimated that 200 more are still at large including three petty chieftains. Governor-General Wood and other authorities think the trouble is over but the Inspector of the Sulu Department is sending constabulary and reinforcements for the purpose of combing the island and taking in recalcitrants.—Reuter.

EXTRA-
TERRITORIALITY.Statement by Peking
Government.Peking, June 3.—The Chinese Commission on Extra-Territoriality issues a statement rebutting the arguments for delay in establishing a Commission to investigate and report upon Extra-Territorial-ity and Judicial Administration inChina, contending that the original date, in November, for the coming of foreign Commissioners be maintained. Should the postponement be considered necessary, another definite date, not later than six months, will be jointly fixed by the Chinese Government and the Governments of the foreign

HONGKONG, 4th June, 1927.

TROPICAL SETTLEMENT.

The economic factors in Europe—not excepting the United Kingdom—which are the effects of the late war, have resulted in a steady increase in the number of individuals of the white races who are seeking a livelihood in the undeveloped parts of the globe. In many cases, with the great advance of sanitary knowledge, it has been found possible to open up areas in sub-tropical regions for white settlers—for example in East Africa and parts of Oceania. Nowadays, again, with the general increase in the cost of living, and the more economic mode of life that prudence or necessity has introduced, the questions of settlement in areas hitherto counted as not white man's land, and the practicability of a prolonged sojourn in the tropics without injury to one's health, come before the public as important matters that merit early investigation. In most of the European tropical possessions—as, to some extent, in Hongkong—are white families that can show almost continuous residence for two or more generations without apparent deterioration in mental or bodily vigour. The subject becomes of special importance to those who are concerned with the education of growing-up children. In many of our Crown Colonies to-day the schooling provided is as good as anything that the average European child would obtain in the Homeland, and when considerations of expense, and long separation from the parents, are taken into account, there is a good case for taking advantage of whatever chances tropical domicile can offer. In places of low elevation near the Equator, it will probably never be possible to rear very healthy children in continuous residence. The necessity for hill-stations is then paramount. But in more or less high-lying tropic regions, and districts enjoying a distinct change of season during the year, the factors favourable to tropical settlement or partial settlement are sufficient to deserve full advantage being taken of them. It is now, with medical science at its present advanced stage, merely a question of facts, and no longer of speculation; and it is becoming more and more apparent every year that the century-old fear of residence in hot climates, handed down to the white races, as a traditional dread, by the early pioneers, is rapidly being dissipated.

In any consideration of tropical settlement the northern area of Australia, lying within a hot, and more or less humid, zone, immediately springs to mind, particularly in view of recent questions of restricted immigration and fears of the unpopulated wastes of that continent being over-run by Asiatics. Within the past few months several authoritative pronouncements on the subject have been made, tending to show that tropical Australia can to a large extent become a white man's country. Few could be more competent to write of this matter than Professor Skeritcho, whose conclusions apply equally to other torrid lands. He finds that only about seventeen per cent. of the tropic region of Australia is not capable of white settlement. The whole remaining area is one where "the white race might live in perpetuity even as it now can live in comfort." This is due to two extremely important governing conditions—elevation and humidity. The greater part of tropic Australia is, he points out, in enjoyment of a dry atmosphere, and averages over 1,000 feet above mean sea level. The dryness of the air makes the very high summer temperatures quite bearable. In this connection he cites an interesting personal experience: "I had spent several summer months in the interior of China, constantly in the open air, with the temperature well above 100 degrees Fahrenheit, for most of the long northern day. It was hot, burning hot, but not unpleasant, save that one's skin had a tendency to crack in the dry air. I returned direct to Shanghai, to find many of the business houses closed, horses, and men dropping in the street, and a general upset, all owing to the distressing heat. Yet the thermometer never overtopped 90 deg. F." It was all a question of humidity. Before leaving the subject, however, we cannot omit reference to an extraordinary statement by Professor Skeritcho, with which we think many observers will disagree. He is of positive opinion that, if engaged in outdoor manual labour, neither the white man nor the yellow man can live continuously in the tropics of Asia. The italics are ours. And he comes to this conclusion after what he states has been a close study of the Chinese as well as of white men.

Congratulations.

We naturally look for the names of officials in the King's Birthday Honours List, and we are gratified when merit in Government service is recognised in this way. But it is especially pleasing when from the ordinary residents of a Colony there are singled out for notice the names of some who have served the community well. That is why we rejoice at the inclusion in the latest Honours List of the names of two fine-spirited and noble social workers—those of Miss Pitts and the Rev. Dr. T. W. Pearce. Both belong to missionary organisations which have done splendid work in this Colony, and both have laboured here for very many years, giving unstintingly of their services to the poorer class of Chinese. Dr. Pearce is what we might term "the Grand Old Man of Hongkong." He is one of the Colony's finest characters and is universally loved

DAY BY DAY.

The total rainfall registered at the Observatory for the four days ending at 10 a.m. to-day amounts to 3.50 inches.

The silk which left here by the P. and O. s.s. Karmala on the 2nd. May, was delivered in Marseilles on the 2nd. June.

One of the patients admitted into the Kwong Wah Hospital yesterday was an eleven-year-old boy who was injured at Shanghai Street when he was knocked down by a motor car.

Chen On-tai, an ex-secret service man of Chan King-ming, was murdered early yesterday morning in one of the dark alleys in Honam (says the Canton Daily News of Saturday).

The health return for the past three days shows four cases of plague, two of enteric fever and one of paratyphoid fever. The last named sufferer was a Filipino; the others Chinese.

There was a very interesting wedding on May 27th, when Miss Tatiana Stahyeff, daughter of the late Mr. Peter Stahyeff, was married to Mr. Joseph Baldwin Carson, of H. M. Diplomatic Service, Secretary of the Peking Legation, at the Russian Church, Shanghai.

Amongst the passengers who left by the Empress of Canada on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Buckenrough, Surg.-Comdr. and Mrs. A. A. Sanders, Mr. P. W. Goldring, Mr. H. A. Lammer, and Mr. P. C. Potts.

Even a corpse is of value in the eyes of the bandits. At least the bandits in Tung Yuen entertain the idea that money can also be obtained even if a corpse is taken away from the family of the dead, for ransom. A story is current that the body of a certain merchant in Tung Yuen, Wang Ming-yue by name, who died a few days ago was taken away from his home by bandits. His family was notified the next day that if a certain sum was given the bandits the corpse would be returned to the family for the interrupted burial.—Canton Daily News.

as he deserves to be. Though well up in years he is still wonderfully young in spirit—a great believer in early rising and hard work. He is an example to many a young Hongkong man. The honour which he has been given is more than earned by long years of earnest toil for others. Miss Pitts also has a fine record of self-denying service to her credit amongst Chinese girls and women. She has brought a charm of character and high courage to the task to which she has been devoted for so many years, and in her case also honour has been given to whom it is due. We wish both recipients many years of enjoyment of the marks of royal favour which they have received.

South China Chaos.

The most casual reading of the newspapers these days is sufficient to indicate the state of chaos which continues to prevail in South China. A few days ago, our Pakhoi correspondent reported that "bandit gangs have been particularly busy of late, plundering the countryside, kidnapping and killing the villagers, with the result that streams of woman and children refugees continue to pour into the city, carrying their goods and driving before them their cattle in order to save them from the brigands' hands. That is one picture. Here is another. In the Shingling region, fully three hundred people have died from want of food as a result of the famine caused by communications being cut off through the fighting, whilst in the actual warfare some hundreds of houses have been burnt down. These are tragic aspects of life for the average Chinese in the adjacent province. They show what internal disturbances and fighting lead to. We are not blaming either the one side or the other. We draw attention to the sorry facts. And we can imagine the cry of the Chinese villagers going up:—"How long?"

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO.

A Glance at Our Files.

(May 24 May 31, 1901.)

LAND SALES.

The Government, we hear, made a very good thing out of land sales last year. The estimated revenue from this source was $250,000 and the amount actually realized was over $300,000.

INSPECTOR McEWAN.

We hear that Inspector McEwan has left the Naval Yard Police and is to join the Sanitary Department. His place has been filled by Sergeant Lawrence, from the Torpedo Depot at Kowloon. Inspector McEwan is well known in Hongkong as our leading dog fancier. He did not confine himself to dogs either, as his quarters always were the air of a miniature menagerie. The Naval Yard folk will doubtless miss him, while the Sanitary Department may congratulate themselves upon having obtained a thoroughly good man.

PUBLIC BATHS.

At the Sanitary Board, Dr. Clarke moved that the Board inform the Government of the great success of the public bath-houses which had been opened in various parts of the City. He said that the only drawback was that the supply of hot water was not equal to the demand. Coolies flocked to the bath-houses in crowds and they were proving a great boon. Another question which he said required consideration was the advisability of supplying something or other to take the place of soap—carbolicine, for instance which have a good lather—the Board could not be expected to supply soap, or every coolie who took a bath would want a cake. Mr. Fung Wah Chun then called attention to the powder used by the coolie classes instead of soap. He said that it was very cheap and could be supplied at little cost. Dr. Clarke said that at present the coolies simply had a rub down with hot water; soap was greatly needed. He moved that: "The Board recommend the Government to increase the number of bath-houses and to supply some cheap substitute for soap." The resolution was put and carried unanimously.

LANDMARK DISAPPEARS.

An old landmark is rapidly disappearing. We refer to the old Stag Hotel, and many residents will remember the time when this was one of the principal hotels in the Colony. It marks the progress of the community when in a few years the old must be removed and a new five story building erected. Underable management it should be a great convenience to travellers and under the skilled hand of Mr. Hazeland the architect will certainly be an ornament to Queen's Road.

WHY?

We wonder how it is that the same Reports on various matters, generally sanitary, the same suggestions and proposals, appear with unfailing regularity in the Latetle? We suppose it means the authors of the Reports have nothing new to say, as their suggestions have rarely been acted upon, and therefore merely require repetition. But it looks rather as if these Reports, which take time and trouble to compile, were so much waste paper, when we read in Gazette after Latetle sentences like these:—"I mentioned this in 18—" or "I have urged this matter before at different times." often years ago.

EUROPEAN RESERVATIONS.

Could not the question of European reservations be brought up again now? It is only of late years that the Chinese have thrust themselves into the European quarters, and with what disastrous results one has only to glance at the plague returns to see. The two races cannot live by side in comfort, and we utterly fail to see why a European should be subjected to the annoyance of perhaps having houses on either side of his own taken up by Chinese with their insanitary habits and annoying practices. It is all very well to argue that one man is as good as another but that would not be accepted as an excuse for the establishment of a friend fish shop in the basement of the Houses of Parliament. We have heard it stated by some Government Officials that it will end by all the Europeans living at the Peak. This looks very nice upon paper, but it doesn't work out well, for not one half of our European population would be able to afford it. The Europeans say, another story.

GOOD WORK.

Tribute to the Marion Barclay Hospital.

When a new-comer arrives at Pakkai, an outpost to the north-east of Hongmoon, he is sure to be struck by the imposing building of the Marion Barclay Hospital. The building being favourably situated, commands a good view of the surrounding scenery. It faces the river that leads with its winding course, to Kongmoon and places far beyond. The hospital was founded in the year 1912 by the Canadian Presbyterian Mission. It is divided into two sections, for men and women respectively, the former being taken charge of by Dr. J. A. McDonald and the latter by Dr. J. A. MacBean. Both are experienced and qualified doctors to whom the hospital owes its success, for they are largely responsible for having made the hospital what it is now. Dr. MacBean is immensely popular amongst her Chinese lady friends. Her untiring attention to the patients and professional fitness have won her many grateful friends amongst the Chinese community, though with their oriental reserve, they mostly appreciate her good work complementarily and few think of expressing their appreciation in public. But good work is eloquent of itself, and there will doubtless come a time when the work of the worthy doctors will be more publicly appreciated. The member of patients cured within its walls speaks wonders (to one who is acquainted with the conditions in an inland port of China) for the work of the hospital. With fighting and piracy going on in the vicinity, this hospital is doing its duties regularly and quietly, treating the sick and receiving the wounded. In contrast to all the mischief caused by soldiery and brigandage in the surrounding places, this hospital is doing endless good to the community. It is difficult to foretell to what extent the hospital is capable of being developed, but there is no doubt that it is fast becoming a substantial boon to the public.—Contributed.

TYPHOON WARNINGS.

The telegram quoted below was received by the American Consulate-General, Hongkong, from the Manila Observatory at 9.30 a.m. to-day:—

- 1.—Cyclone or typhoon between the Visayas and Luzon moving W., or W.N.W.
- 2.—Typhoon in about 136 deg. Long. E., 12 deg. Lat. N., moving N.W.
- 3.—Typhoon in about 125 deg. Long. E., 12 deg. Lat. N., moving W.
- 4.—Typhoon in about 137 deg. Long. E., 11 deg. Lat. N., moving N.N.W.

on the lower levels are just as much entitled to consideration as their fellows on the Peak and should have their wants attended to. As a matter of fact, it is growing to be more apparent that this Colony is being run for the convenience of the Chinese alone and that the Europeans are looked upon by the Authorities as undesirable residents, who are not wanted and must rub along as best they can if they insist upon coming here. We are not anti-Chinese by any means, but we do think that there is a place for all things, the Chinaman included. When he has learnt to keep himself and his premises clean and does not want to keep us awake the whole night long with his discordant noises, we shall not object to him as a neighbour, but these things he will have to learn before we consider him to be a valuable acquisition to a row of houses mainly inhabited by Europeans.

GOVERNOR'S PEAK RESIDENCE.

It is said that the Governor's Peak residence is proceeding apace and that the roof is now being put on the building. It will not, however, be finished before next year.

POST OFFICE AND LAW COURTS.

We hear that arrangements for the commencement of the erection of the new Post Office and Law Courts are being pushed ahead rapidly and that a very short time will see the Supreme Court and Post Office put into temporary quarters, to make room for building operations. How soon the new buildings will be completed is as Kipling would say, another story.

GYMKHANA.

Roman Pride Wins Stakes.

Despite the wet her, those who attended the Gymkhana on Saturday—and there were a fair number under the circumstances—had a very enjoyable afternoon. The rain confined the spectators to the stands most of the time, but the band of the King's Regiment was a great help in livening up the proceedings. On the whole it was a favourite's day and dividends were small. The new ponies recently brought down from Shanghai were responsible for larger fields than some of the previous meeting this year, and only two events had less than six starters. The new ponies, however, did not show up well, and it was the old favourites which paid the dividends. It was a successful day for Mr. Zellenzky. This jockey rode in six races and gained three firsts, two seconds and a third. Mr. Gibson had the honour of bringing in the winner of the Gymkhana Stakes, Messrs. H. Sassoon and H. Arnold's Roman Pride. The surprise of the afternoon was Dapper Dan (Mr. Remedios up), which won the "B" Class Handicap and paid the best dividend of the day, $135.30.

Criqui Knocks Out Kilbane.

LAWN BOWLS.

Saturday's League Results.

As the result of Saturday matches Kowloon Dock still head the League Table with eight points, the two Taikoo teams coming next with six each. Taikoo No. 2 had their match with the Kowloon Bowling Green Club postponed owing to the condition of the greens. Craigengower and Civil Service are still without a point.

Kowloon Dock entertained the K.C.C. and thanks to some good work on the part of the first rink managed to win by nine points. K.C.C. were without McMurtre but Stevens, who deputised, kept Lapsley well in check. The Police, thanks to the first rink, gained a comfortable victory over Craigengower and Taikoo No. 1, on their own pitch, swamped the Civil Service. Details of the matches are given below.

For Baby's brothers and sisters, too!

To grow from babyhood into sturdy, happy childhood, your child needs a food rich in body-building qualities, and a food that will not tax their delicate digestions. Plenty of milk is what they require, milk in its safest, most suitable form—Glaxo.

Glaxo is pure, rich milk, made easily digestible and germ-free by the Glaxo Process. Packed in an air-tight, sealed tin, safe from contamination, it safeguards the children from diarrhoea and many other diseases borne by ordinary milk.
